

CORE

The Centre for Outsourcing Research and Education (CORE) is an independent, not-for-profit organization that provides research and education on outsourcing, global sourcing, shared services and other forms of innovative collaboration. CORE's objective is to increase the understanding and adoption of these strategies to enhance productivity and competitiveness among Canadian business communities, corporations and governments.

Since its inception in 2005, CORE has delivered numerous discussion forums and conferences across Canada. The organization also conducts research on Canadian practices and provides formal outsourcing executive education leading to accreditation to practitioners and business leaders both in Canada and around the world.

VICE PRESIDENT

CORE is seeking an experienced and dynamic individual who will lead the overall vision, planning and operations for CORE's Program and Research portfolios.

As a senior member of the CORE team, the Vice President will report to the Chief Executive Officer and work with the Board, members, volunteers, and partners to plan and implement programs and research services for the organization.

The position requires leadership, experience or knowledge of outsourcing and the ability to collaborate with a large number of stakeholders in developing and delivering successful programs and research services for members.

The successful candidate will have a minimum of 5 years experience at a senior management level with a commitment to developing sponsorship and a strong volunteer network. You are a strong administrator and communicator with excellent planning, organizational and computer skills, and the ability to multi-task in a hands-on environment. Location: Toronto

Interested candidates are invited to submit a resume by March 12, 2010 to:

Molly Pellecchia, President and CEO, molly.pellecchia@core-outsourcing.org

Visit the CORE website

We thank all applicants for their interest; however only those invited to an interview will be contacted.